

Serial No. of Bank or Head Post Office

Oblong Stamp of Bank of the Post Office

(Certificates can be transferred to treated as security only to officers mentioned in Rule 58 of the Defence Savings Certificates Rules, 1966. Transfers of certificates as security to private Individuals or institutions is prohibited.)

Declaration by Transferee(s)

I/We _____ hereby declare that the total value of the Defence Savings Certificates held by me/us including the value of the $\frac{\text{Certificate}}{\text{Certificates}}$ which I am/we are taking over from Mr. _____ does not exceed

Mrs. _____
Miss _____

Rs. $\frac{25,000}{50,000}$ (Face value) and I/We agree to abide by the Defence Savings Certificates rules, 1966.

Signature of Transferee(s) of Defence Savings Certificates.

(Note.-Government Officers holding Certificates in their official capacity as security are exempted from signing this Declaration).

Particulars of Defence Savings Certificates or “declarations in lieu” of lost certificates issued to transferee(s)

(To be filled in by the Bank or Head Post Office)

No.	Date	Denomination	Date of discharge and the initials of Bank Officer of Postmaster	Remarks (Every change affecting a Defence Savings Certificates, such as, transfer. Spoilt issue of declaration, etc., should be noted here under the dated initial of the Bank Officer or the Postmaster.

Signature of Bank Officer OR Head Postmaster.

.....
Total fee payable for transfer is shown in the table below:-

Total face value of Certificates :-

				Fee Payable
Rs.	5	Rs.	100	0.25
Rs.	105	Rs.	1,000	0.50
Rs.	1,005	Rs.	2,000	0.75
Rs.	2,005	Rs.	3,000	1.00
Rs.	3,005	Rs.	4,000	1.25
Above Rs.	4,000			1.50